22 Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Costs of Service of Summons

23 Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain parties to cooperate in 24 saving unnecessary costs of service of the summons and complaint. A defendant located in the 25 United States who, after being notified of an action and asked by a plaintiff located in the United 26 States to waive service of a summons, fails to do so will be required to bear the cost of such 27 service unless good cause be shown for its failure to sign and return the waiver.
28

1 It is not good cause for a failure to waive service that a party believes that the complaint is 2 unfounded, or that the action has been brought in an improper place or in a court that lacks
3 jurisdictions over the subject matter of the action or over its person or property. A party who 4 waives service of the summons retains all defenses and objections (except any relating to the 5 summons or service of the summons), and may later object to the jurisdiction of the court of to the 6 place where the action has been brought.

7 A defendant who waives service must within the time specified on the waiver form serve 8 on the plaintiff's attorney (or unrepresented plaintiff) a response to the complaint and must also 9 file a signed copy of the response with the court. If the answer or motion is not served within this 10 time, a default judgment may be taken against that defendant. By waiving service, a defendant is 11 allowed more time to answer than if the summons had been actually served when the request for 12 waiver of service was received.
